Atlanta, GA – April 1, 2020 – Well known author, Kelly Raye is scheduled to sign copies of her exciting short stories at her book signing on Saturday, March 28th at the Georgia International Convention Center in College Park, GA.

“I am thrilled that my event will include my new work of short stories “Creative Story Journal” about love, adventure and life choices,” said Kelly Johnson. “I am equally excited to partner with any other authors to promote their work and to promote reading among youth to strengthen and sharpen their skills.”

Kelly Raye will have representatives onsite during the book signing to assist with donating back-to-school supplies to literary students. “It’s all about bringing writers, books and book lovers together,” says Kelly Johnson. “This is sure to be an awesome book signing event.”

The event will kick off at 11:00 am. For more information, visit switchdigitalpr.com. You can also connect with Kelly on Facebook.

Hardcover and eBook copies can be purchased for $5.00 at any Barnes & Noble bookstore and online through Amazon. Multiple eBook formats can be found on Smashwords, an online resource for authors and book lovers, to download and purchase.

Kelly Raye is an Author, Project Manager and Creative Media consultant. She recently served as Member at Large with the Editorial Freelancers Association.
